Picture this: after an early morning start meandering through the steep cobbled streets of Lisbon's Alfama district, you stop for a coffee and pastel de nata, dusting flakes of pastry off your lips.

Better still, why not spend an afternoon unwinding on San Sebastian, one of the many golden beaches that line Barcelona? You can paddle or swim, and when the heat gets too much, take shade from beneath a parasol or watch skateboarders doing tricks on the neighbouring boulevard.

Alternatively, perhaps your idea of a holiday is touring Budapest's castle, Museum of Fine Arts and Hungarian parliament building, then lingering on a nearby bridge as dusk falls to see its Neo-Gothic dome glittering in the dark.

Win a UK or European cruise with Norwegian Cruise Line (NCL) and take your pick of these experiences.
